25X1

NFIP Support for Contingency Operations - [REDACTED]

- Paul has received a tentative agenda for DIA's Low Intensity Conflict Symposium scheduled for May. But, since the Director of DIA wants a more "action oriented" conference, the agenda is being revised to ensure that concrete recommendations emerge from the three-day gathering.
 - The CIPC working group will attend as observers, and the results of the symposium will be incorporated in the CIPC effort, as appropriate.

Narcotics Intelligence [REDACTED]

- On 13 March, the DDCI will brief the Cabinet Council at the Narcotics Enforcement Policy Board Meeting.
 - At the request of the A/NIO/Narc, and with the support of PBS, we developed a briefing package for the A/NIO incorporating the budget figure breakdown (by agency component) for the Community in dollars and manpower. The package also included highlights from the 1987 CBJB to illustrate significant intelligence support contributions to the narcotics enforcement effort.
- We are preparing a memorandum for your signature to the NIO/Narc advising him that the CIPC will undertake the development of a strategy paper on
